

THE ANDALUSIAN PUBLIC FOUNDATION FOR HEALTH RESEARCH MANAGEMENT IN SEVILLE PUBLISHES THE PRESENT JOB OFFER FOR A POSITION OF

RESEARCHER

The Institute of Biomedicine of Seville (IBIS) – hereinafter referred as IBIS – is constituted as a research institute as foreseen in the Royal Decree 339/2004, of 27th of February, being participated by the Andalusian Regional Ministry for Innovation, Science and Enterprise, the Andalusian Regional Ministry of Health, the Spanish National Research Council, the University of Seville and the Andalusian Health Service, having these entities a common interest in fostering collaboration and cooperation and in joining efforts in the field of health research.

IBIS is a multidisciplinary biomedical research centre, located in the campus of the Hospital Virgen del Rocío – hereinafter referred as HUVR – with the aim to undertake high quality and competitive research at international level on the most prevalent diseases and the development of new methods of diagnosis and treatment.

The Fundación Pública Andaluza para la Gestión de la Investigación en Salud de Sevilla – hereinafter referred as FISEVI – is the managing body appointed by the Executive Council of IBIS. FISEVI is a non-profit organization belonging to the Public Sector of the Autonomous Community of Andalusia which asset is addressed to training activities, scientific research and technological development in Health related Sciences.

FISEVI aims at the promotion of high-level biomedical research in Andalusia, as well as the development of innovations in health related technologies, training and management of health research. According to the Article 5 of its Statutes, FISEVI is allowed to undertake as many activities directly or indirectly addressed to the consecution of its aims.

As such, FISEVI, with the financial support from the H2020 FAIR4Health publishes the present job offer.

FAIR4Health research project receives support from the European Commission (Research Executive Agency) under grant agreement n° 824666 - resources from H2020 Framework Programme.

BASIS OF THE PUBLIC JOB OFFER

A. Objective of the offer.-

The objective of the present offer is to select a candidate that fulfills the requirements needed to participate in “Improving Health Research in EU through FAIR Data (FAIR4Health)”, whose Principal Investigator is Dr. Carlos Parra Calderon, to be developed at the Group of Research and Innovation in Biomedical Informatics, Biomedical Engineering & Health Economy at the Institute of Biomedicine of Seville - Hospital Virgen del Rocío of

Hospital Universitario Virgen del Rocío. Edif. de Laboratorios, Pl. 6ª Avda. Manuel Siurot, s/n. 41013 Sevilla.

Tlf. 955 013 284 • www.fisevi.com

Seville.

B.- Position offer.-

1. Contract Modality: Temporary (according to Estatuto de Trabajadores and/or Ley de la Ciencia)
2. Professional Group: Researcher – Position: Researcher
3. Foreseen start date: 01/04/2019
4. Pre-determinate duration: 31 months
5. Working time: full time
6. Annual gross salary: 2.146,3 euros gross monthly (base salary plus the proportional part of extra pay). In terms of variable remuneration up to 1.885,38 euros per year (according to the degree of fulfillment of the objectives established in the project).

C.- Responsibilities.-

The candidate will actively participate in the day-to-day scientific activities and coordination of the project FAIR4Health-H2020 as a member of the Coordinating team, specifically in the following activities:

- Scientific tasks of the project.
- Scientific publications on the results of the project.
- Project management assistant: support the scientific coordination team and drafting of technical reports/deliverables
- Dissemination of project outcomes: drafting of scientific contributions, development of training materials, social media management and support to the organization of project events (meetings, workshops, etc.)

D.- General requirements for this position.-

Applicants must fulfill the followings requirements by the deadline of the job offer:

1. Academic Title: PhD in Information technologies/informatics/Library & Information Sciences or similar
2. Minimum requirements:
 - Certified HL7
 - English fluency
 - At least 2 publications of scientific impact indexed on pubmed in the field of Health Informatics in the last 5 years.
 - Experience working in H2020 financed research projects.

Hospital Universitario Virgen del Rocío. Edif. de Laboratorios, Pl. 6ª Avda. Manuel Siurot, s/n. 41013 Sevilla.

Tlf. 955 013 284 • www.fisevi.com

3. Other aspect to value:

- Involvement in FAIR initiatives.
- Experience working in multicentric/coordinated eHealth research projects.

4. Evaluation criteria:

- a. Academic record: 2 points
- b. Professional experience: 2 points
- c. Experience in the field: 3 points
- d. Employment interview: 3 points.

E- Candidature submission.-

The job offer is published in the web page of, <http://www.fisevi.com/index.php/es/ofertas-de-empleo>, and the web page of the Institute of Biomedicine of Seville (IBIS), <http://www.ibis-sevilla.es/agenda/ofertas-de-empleo/ofertas-de-empleo-ibis.aspx>.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the job offer may be disseminated through other means.

F- Submission Modalities:

Candidature must be submitted using the normalized CV available in the websites mentioned before.

The CV has to be submitted according to one of the following modalities:

- a By means of electronic communication to the following email address:
convocatorias-rrhh@fisevi.com in format DOC, DOCX or PDF
In the "object" of the email, the job offer reference must be indicated: 084/19-HUVR-I and Full name and surname

The job offer reference 084/19-HUVR-I must be included in the header of the CV normalized model.

G.- Deadline.-

Applications must be presented by 22 of March of 2019 at 14:00 h (Spanish time) according to one or the other modality previously indicated.

Hospital Universitario Virgen del Rocío. Edif. de Laboratorios, Pl. 6ª Avda. Manuel Siurot, s/n. 41013 Sevilla.

Tlf. 955 013 284 • www.fisevi.com

H.- Selection and evaluation of applications.-

After the deadline, all the candidatures will be analyzed and evaluated according to their adaptation to the required profile. The selected candidate will then be designated.

Presentation of the original documents related to the fulfillment of the requirements expressed in this job offer might be required.

I.- Data Protection.-

According to the Law 15/1999 on Personal Data Protection, the CV data will be incorporated in the folder "Human Resources" under the Responsibility of Fundación Pública Andaluza para la Gestión de la Investigación en Salud de Sevilla (FISEVI).

Your data will be processed by the File Manager, in accordance with current legislation on Personal Data Protection, for the purpose of managing and controlling the data in the HR selection processes.

By submitting your CV to the call, you consent to the following purposes:

- Publish, if necessary, the results of the process of evaluating candidates in the Foundation's WEB site and / or any means of dissemination for that purpose, specifying the name, surname and score obtained in the call.

We inform you of the possibility of exercising your rights of access, rectification, cancellation and opposition of your personal data, requesting it in writing at the following address:

FUNDACION PÚBLICA ANDALUZA PARA LA GESTION DE LA INVESTIGACION EN SALUD DE SEVILLA.

Avda. Manuel Siurot S/N.
Edif. Laboratorios, Planta 6ª.
41013-SEVILLA.

Seville, 13 th March 2019

Fdo. José Cañón Campos
Managing Director